MOMENTUM FOR CHANGE

REFLECTION

APOSTLE TUNDE BALOGUN Title: Momentum for Change

WHO AM I
SURROUNDING MYSELF WITH, AND ARE THEY
HELPING ME MOVE
TOWARD GOD'S PURPOSE
FOR MY LIFE?

KEY POINTS

1. GOD DOES NOT REQUIRE PERFECTION TO BEGIN A MOVEMENT
2. LEADERSHIP BEGINS IN HIDDEN, HUMBLE PLACES BEFORE IT'S REVEALED ON PUBLIC PLATFORMS.
3. COMMUNITY PLAYS A VITAL ROLE IN TRANSFORMATION: THOSE WHO GATHERED AROUND DAVID WERE CHANGED BY THE CALLING AND VISION.

MY WORDS HIS POWER

The Mouth That Moves Mountains

I've come to realize that life is less about what's in our hands and more about what's in our mouths. Not the food we eat, but the words we speak. My journey with God has shown me that mountains don't move because I push they move because I speak.

There were seasons I stayed silent out of fear, doubt, or uncertainty and the mountains loomed. But then I began to understand the power God placed in my tongue. Scripture says, "If you have faith and do not doubt... you will say to this mountain, 'Be removed and cast into the sea,' and it will be done." (Matthew 21:21)

My style isn't just what I wear it's how I live, how I speak, how I pray. It's bold, because my God is bold. It's faith-filled, because fear no longer owns me. Every morning, I don't just choose clothes I choose declarations. I clothe myself in strength, dignity, and truth, and I speak into my day with heaven's authority.

I've learned that style means nothing if my spirit is silent. The enemy isn't threatened by fashion he's threatened by faith-filled speech. And that's what I carry.

When I say, "I will not be moved," it's not just words. It's a command. When I say, "This mountain will move," I'm not guessing I'm activating spiritual law.

There were times I waited for doors to open, for storms to calm, for healing to arrive until God whispered, "Speak. Don't just wait command."

Now I know: my breakthrough isn't always in what I do it's in what I say. So no, my style isn't just aesthetic. It's prophetic.

This month, I challenge you: Don't just climb your mountain. Speak to it.

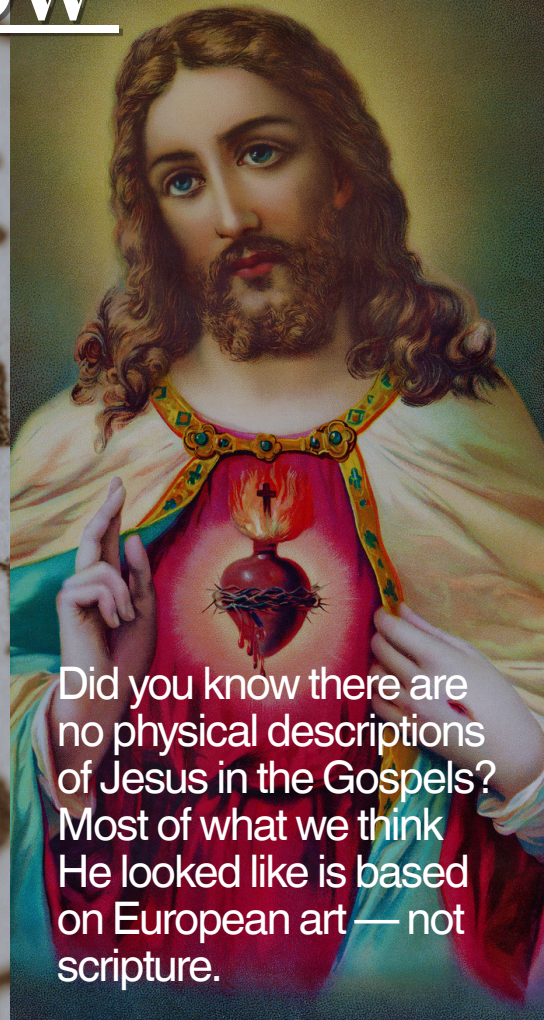

Did you know the Bible never says the forbidden fruit was an apple? That idea came later through art and tradition.

The last word in the Bible is Amen

Did you know there are no physical descriptions of Jesus in the Gospels? Most of what we think He looked like is based on European art — not scripture.
